JUROR

Amy McBride:

Amy has over 20 years experience as an art professional. Ms. McBride manages the Office of Arts & Cultural Vitality in Tacoma, WA. Through this work, she supports artists and arts organizations through funding, public art, innovative programs, and progressive approaches to community development.

Ms. McBride came to Tacoma in 1999 after coordinating the arts program for Bellevue College's extension program. Amy has presented nationally on issues of public art, temporary art installations, and civic democracy through Americans for the Arts. She has served on panels for the National Endowment for the Arts, Artist Trust, Foundation of Art Award, Kittredge Gallery, Congressional Art Awards, Arts WA, and more.

She holds a BA from the University of Colorado-Boulder in French and Art History with a year of focused study at L'Universite de Bordeaux. Post graduate work includes a stint in the sculpture department at the Academy of Art University in San Francisco and a certificate in Fundraising Management from the University of Washington. Amy earned a Masters degree with a focus on Urban Arts from the University of Washington-Tacoma in 2010. She founded Spaceworks Tacoma in 2009 in partnership with the Tacoma-Pierce County Chamber.
